Gonçalo da Cunha, Managing Partner and Coordinator of FCB's Corporate, Commercial and M&A Department, attended the Annual Roundtable organized by Iberian Lawyer, in preparation for the Lisbon Annual Report. The topics under discussion included how is the legal market adjusting to the current economic environment or what main challenges are law firms in Portugal currently facing.

Don't miss this chance and take a look over Gonçalo's thoughts recorded by Iberian Lawyer TV, in which he says that Lusophone Africa - despite the oil crisis - and Brazil still offer significant opportunities for law firms.
