

New law governing private investment in Angola

The 2011 Foreign Investment Law of Angola was repealed on 11 August, 2015 and a new foreign investment entered into force on the same day. Law 14/15, of 11 August – the New Angolan Private Investment Law (NPIL) – is now the governing act.

Following this publication, FCB was invited by Iberian Lawyer to write a brief Legal Update summarizing the most relevant features implemented.

The full extended Legal Update, written by Pedro Guimarães, Partner, is now available at www.iberianlawyer.com/legal-updates.

Pedro Guimarães, Partner, coordinates FCB's Energy & Natural Resources Department.

More: <http://www.fcblegal.com/Pedro-Guimaraes-e102.htm>