Utu Soulful Lighting unveils the new lighting design Monaco and Helio

Monaco family

Utu Soulful Lighting, a leading manufacturer of lighting design unveils the newest addition to its lighting collection - Monaco and Helio lamps.

The idea behind the creation of the Monaco family was to introduce a sculptural piece resembling a mobile art sculpture, including the always warming and comforting ambient light coming from the opaque glass globes.

Part ambient light, part artwork, Monaco lamps will highlight any space in all the right ways thanks to its glass globes and sleek brass details.

As it is custom in Utu's collection, Monaco is fully customizable in all its parts, allowing it to adapt perfectly to each project and space.

Helio family

The Helio collection continues our exploration of light and the luxurious pairing of materials, bringing together metal, glass and wood.

An intersection between art and design, Helio lamps are a solid example of exploration of form, transforming any space into a different world.

Their gentle curves and contrasting materials feel utterly timeless, imbuing it with a refined, exclusive nature.
